

AIDV European Section
Annual Conference
June 16th 2017

At Budapest Bar
1055 Budapest, Szalay utca 7

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The current approach of the European case-law in the field of wine and viticulture law

Session Grand Witness: Dr. Attila Pókecz Kovács, Director of the Wine Law Programme, and Manager of the Roumainian Law Department of Pécs University.

8h 30 - 9h 00: Registration of participants.

9h - 9h 30: Welcome speeches.

- Cristiana I. STOICA, President of the AIDV European Section. Introduction of participants for the welcome speeches.
- Dr. László RETI, President of the Budapest Bar.
- Péter GAL, Deputy Secretary of State of the Ministry of Agriculture, responsible for protection of origin.
- Dr. Dávid BRAZSIL, Secretary General of the National Council of Vitivinicultural Communities.
- Dr. Attila JASDI - Lawyer, Szecskay Cabinet, Budapest, organizer of the Annual Conference.

9h 30 – 12h 00 – SESSION I – Impacte des arrêts de la Cour Européenne sur les différentes pratiques et législations européennes – Moderator – Michel Desilet, Lawyer in Lyon at Axiojuris Firm.

9h 30 – 10h30 Experience of traditional winemaking countries: France and Spain.

- Yves MENGIN, French Grape grower, Treasurer of the IWLA European Section - "Selection of case-law of the French Court of Appeal concerning wine from a tax point of view"
- Felix PEREZ, Lawyer at SEAIN-ETL GLOBAL Firm in Spain and Former President of AIDV - "Rioja Judgment. Bottled in origin»"
- Yann JUBAN, Deputy of the General Director of the International Wine Organization - "A final decision on the OIV" - CJEU C-399/12 Assimilation, Impact on the acquis, Incorporation: "The legal effects of the OIV recommendations in the EU Law ".

10h 30 - 11h 00: Coffee break

11h 00 – 11h45 Experience of wine-growing countries in Central and Eastern Europe: Hungary and Romania.

- István JÁSDI, Founder of Domaine Jásdi and Dr. Attila JÁSDI, partner of the Szecskay firm and co-owner of Domaine Jásdi - «Current issues and problems of the vineyards of Lake Balaton».
- Judit SALAMON, Project manager of the Municipality of the XXIInd Arrondissement of Budapest on the project "Wine District of Budapest".
- Dragos BOGDAN, Lawyer partner of Cabinet STOICA & Associates, Bucharest - "Harmonization of Romanian wine legislation with the rules and practice of the European Court of Justice".

11h45-12h00: Q&A

12h 00 – 13h 00 – SESSION II – New regulations and new wine-making practices in Europe - Moderator Dr. Cristiana STOICA, lawyer, founding partner of STOICA & Associates, Bucharest.

- Alex TALLON, Lawyer, Former President of the Bar, Praetica | Zavel-Sablon, Brussels - "The indication of the appellation as an ingredient"
- Dr. Mariagrazia SEMPREBON, Legal Counsel at Agrilegal, Vérone - "The new Italian law on wines and vineyards".
- Diana LAZAR, Lawyer in Moldova at Competitiveness Project - "New wine regulations in Moldova"

13h 00 – 14h 00: Lunch and Hungarian wine tasting.

14h 00 – 15h 15: SESSION III – Brexit: An obstacle to the wine trade within in E.U.?

A debate with all the participants under the coordination of Thomas SCHMITZ, President of the International Wine Law Association, partner lawyer of HOYNG ROKH MONEGIER, Düsseldorf; with the participation of Adela LARIO, Legal Director of Osborne, Spain, Former President of the European Section of IWLA.

15h 15 – 15h 35 – SESSION IV – Report on European case law: The European Court's most important decisions since 2015 - Marina COUSTE, Associate, Reed Smith LLP, Paris, France.

15h35 – 15h45: Q&A

15h45 – 16h00: Synthesis of the work by Grand Witness. Closing of the conference.

16h 00 – 16h 30: General Assembly – IWLA - European Section (only for registered AIDV members).

(On the premises of the Budapest Bar)
